The title of Distinguished Professor recognizes the exceptional academic contributions of full-time faculty members who hold the rank of professor. Distinguished Professors are recognized leaders in their fields of research or creative activity; demonstrate significant leadership in raising the University's standards in teaching, research or creative activity, and service; and exhibit excellent teaching skills.

Penn State's Office of the Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs named 10 Distinguished Professors for 2020 who are included in this list, which is organized by College.

To learn more about Penn State’s Distinguished Professorships, see University Policy AC10 or visit the Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs website.
